KILEY

Made of select solid wood and choice veneers, this stunning round side table will catch every eye. This accent table sets itself apart from the rest with its hand-carved post legs and detailing. The single drawer with antique brass finished knob offers storage space. This decorative table is very graceful and has a unique design. This design looks very stylish and also gels well with the rest of the furniture in your room. This table has a clear structure which reflects simplicity and class. Plus, a special compartment for books is also provided, making this table a very effective addition to your home.
